

WEEKLY BULLETIN

Where learning has no limits

1st October 2018

Dear parents,

I hope you had an enjoyable weekend and enjoyed the last of the sunshine this year.

Weekly Overview

English: We will be finalising our newspaper reports.

Maths: We were busy reviewing multiplication and rounding skills last week. This week we will be prepared to look at estimation.

Homework tasks: Week 4

Monday

Spellings given out, due Wednesday. Your child should have stuck these into their homework book. Children are to write these spellings into a story or separate sentences.

Our Spellings this week:

Daisy	Tulip	Daffodil
adventure	perhaps	knowledge
texture	popular	knowledgeable archer	popularity	learn
butcher	position	length
richer	possess	lengthen
stretcher	possession	lengthening
teacher	possessive	library
voucher	possible	librarian
fusion	possible	material
vision	possibility	materialistic

Tuesday

English – Due Thursday. October 7th is National Poetry Day. To help celebrate this and the changing seasons, children will write a short poem about autumn in their homework books. Children can choose any form of poem they wish. For example acrostic, rhyming, free verse, haiku.

Wednesday

Maths – Due Friday. Children will revisit rounding and complete a rounding worksheet. A Mathematics extension task will also be set for those who wish to continue revising.

Friday

Spelling test

If you have any questions, please do not hesitate to get in touch.
