Notes:

- In RE we are looking at Naming ceremonies; if you have any artefacts or photos that the children would like to share on Thursday, please send them in for then.
- Please can you begin to save and send in any long cardboard tubes (the ones from foil or cling film are ideal) for a Roman craft.
- Apologies for any possible confusion over last week's maths homework; I have set Mathematics activities and given the children two weeks to complete (not one as mentioned in the last weekly letter). Please see the details as stuck into the children's homework books.

Yours sincerely,

Mrs S Middleton
